Darrin Grove of TrueFit Solutions, Inc. Named Finalist For Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2004 Award

Western Pennsylvania May 18, 2004 – Darrin Grove of TrueFit Solutions, Inc. was named a finalist by professional services firm Ernst & Young LLP for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year 2004 Awards in Western Pennsylvania. TrueFit Solutions was selected from over 50 nominations in Western Pennsylvania by a panel of judges comprised of local community and business leaders. Finalists will be selected in one of six to eight possible award categories announced at an awards banquet on June 25 at the Westin Convention Center.

Darrin Grove founded TrueFit Solutions in February of 1997 with the vision of providing customized, turnkey technology solutions to companies seeking a technology partner. Over the past seven years, he has taken his consistently profitable start-up to new realms of success in custom application development and IT solution provider marketplace. In 2003, TrueFit Solutions, under Darrin's leadership, began focusing the company's core competencies on customer relationship management solutions to help other companies work more efficiently for their customers. Darrin has grown TrueFit Solutions over eight hundred percent in five years, building the company from five to thirty-six employees during this time frame. The PA Tech Council Tech 50 has recently recognized Darrin as a finalist for CEO of the Year. TrueFit has been twice recognized as one of the fastest growing private businesses by the Pittsburgh Business Times and was selected twice as a top 50-technology company by the Pittsburgh Technology Council.

Western Pennsylvania winners will be eligible for consideration for the Entrepreneur Of The Year 2004 national program. Winners in several national categories, as well as the overall national Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year, will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, Calif., in November 2004.
